Statement from Chief Acevedo regarding Senior Police Officer Leonardo Quintana

Today, a disciplinary review hearing was concluded involving Senior Police Officer Leonardo Quintana. SPO Quintana has been indefinitely suspended from the Austin Police Department as a result of his DWI arrest which occurred at 5 a.m. on January 12, 2010. The decisions reached by the chain of command during the review of this incident were unanimous.

APD employees subscribe and are held to the highest levels of ethical conduct. The facts and reasons leading to the indefinite suspension are documented in the disciplinary memorandum, which speaks for itself.

No additional comments will be made or released related to this matter.
